

Lights off, heart beating listening for, shots ringing Thoughts zooming, calm settling A lesson in, strategic thinking what do I have?

where can I go?
Sit on the bath, uncomfortable slab

Text fill, Breathe slow minutes turn to hours adrenaline to weariness refresh the report, wait for the call knowing that, bullet beats wall

What lesson can I learn?
Make more money?
There are so many, who never will stuck in an awful game of knowing and waiting
