

Peace

pay you away may hooray

It is a nice warm Gleece
A hug from your niece Some people hope for a piece when in reality, it's within their reach With some gratitude, it's easy to teach For many of the holy books, it's what they preach But know this, it's not just somewhere on a beach it could be yours now

Some may frown their brow at that but lets not have a row All you gotta do is trust the Tao
In other words, the way.

What do you say?

Whether you are atheist or pray

You must believe it will be OK

To have faith, but no need to obey
I promise you, there can be a day

Where you feel so free

it has happened to me

A moment under a tree, where I chose to just be tree feel wee pec ten be

Breathed Deep

Felt the feeling I try to keep

And man what a leap

From feeling the heap

Of pressure like boulders

On your shoulders

So just keep in view

There are very few

but it could be you.
