This is the Future and I will tell you what AM

I pursue wisdom endlessly

I act courageously

I do volume incomprehensible to most

I work smart and value that over working long or hard

I value and honor my health and family

I demonstrate control and calm not from more effort, but from letting go

I find limits and intentionally break them

I love deeply and truly and am authenticity

My mind is filled with Frameworks and - I speak simply

I move in silence but they will all know I've come

I am changing the world through love.

I am James
