

There is a feeling that starts so deep
A warm, pure feeling of a connection to keep Your heart meets theirs emotions take a leap

Understanding of worlds joining of realities
Like the roots of a great tree, meet the ground
Like warming the cold with a meal and tears
In the feeling you're lost, in the moment you're found

Giving begets giving and love begets love
A wonderful way of living where you'll feel your best & above
