

Real Knows Real

An unspoken communication

Energy unseen passes between

It is less of a science and more of a feel

Real Knows Real

sometimes shown with a nod or note

Other times unneeded as slip into Flow

To get to real you must heal

Real Knows Real

like a pack to an alpha or hunter to hawk How do they operate? Have they been taught?

Are they calm, and have an even keel?

Real Knows Real

There has been an expansion of their mind a depth that they have searched to find

They do what they say they'll do, that's the deal

Real Knows Real

A heart and mind connection

That results in Flow

As they begin to go, they see others and know because Real Knows Real
